Boston, Massachusetts based instrumental rockers, Pray for Sound, are preparing to release their debut full length, Dreamer. The seven-song album clocks in at just over 33 minutes and features violin, viola, and vocals, in addition to the band's traditional guitar, bass, and drums. With influences all over the map, Pray for Sound has crafted an eclectic set of songs, each representing a different dream state, that express a roller coaster of emotions. With mixing by Chris LaRocque and Steve Aliperta of Pray for Sound and mastering by Nick Zampello (Caspian, Pelican) at New Alliance East, Dreamer is a melodic journey that all fans of music will enjoy.

Dreamer will be available digitally via Bandcamp, iTunes, Amazon, and other major digital media outlets on July 9th, 2014. Pray for Sound has also teamed up with Flesh and Bone Records to release physical digipak CD and cassette versions in limited quantities.
